Cena#3 INTERSECTIONS: THREE SISTERS / Collaborative Artistic Workshop

Call for Participants

Deadline July 20th, 2022

(or until 12 participants sign up)

INTERSECTIONS Workshop welcomes participation from all artists and emerging artists who have an interest in or are already developed in the areas of Visual Arts, Music, Dance, Theatre and/or Performance. Those with skills in visual arts, installation, digital media, set design, stage design, building, painting, costume design or making, music, dance, sound design, lighting design, among other related areas.

Building on the experience of its previous editions - in Brazil, Wales, Scotland and the Czech Republic - this time in Calgary, the workshop aims to share the collaborative creation process with participants and invite them to experiment with it.

Limited to:

- 12 in person participants
- 1 place is also offered to a person interested in following and documenting the process for research purposes.

HOW TO APPLY

Please send a short bio, a digital image and few words to show your personal view relating to one of the following subjects:

- 1. Metaphor: Choice of one of the Three Sisters as a metaphor for a local or global issue that you would like to point out;
- 2. Memory: The memory of a local landscape that connects you with your locality and that has undergone some change in the present day;
- 3. Imagination: The border (or rupture) between reality and fiction;
- 4. Something you would like to dig up or bury.

The text should be no longer than 1 A4 (8 ¼ x 11 ¾), double sided.
